

USE GUIDELINES

The following is a non-exhaustive list of SanDisk® product trademarks and logos owned or licensed by Western Digital Corporation or its affiliates (collectively, “WD”). The absence of a trademark or logo from this list shall not waive any of WD’s intellectual property rights. The status of WD’s trademarks may change and it may be necessary to revise this list from time to time.

WD generally allows for its trademarks to be featured or referenced in word form only. The use must not mislead consumers as to any WD sponsorship, affiliation or endorsement of another company, product or service. Any logos associated with the marks listed below are the property of WD and may only be used under license or prior express written permission. Any unauthorized or improper use of WD’s trademarks may constitute infringement and unfair competitor in violation of federal, state and international laws.

In the event you feature or reference any WD trademark(s) in your materials, please include the appropriate attribution statement. For example:

SanDisk and SanDisk Extreme PRO are trademarks of Western Digital Technologies, Inc. or its affiliates (“WD”), registered in the United States and other countries. SanDisk SecureAccess is a trademark of WD.
